PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Trusted Contact

Financial exploitation of seniors and vulnerable adults is a matter of great concern for the Iron Mountain-Kingsford Community Federal Credit Union and the financial services industry. To help support our Members, we now have the option to add a Trusted Contact to your personal file with us. Trusted Contact information provides us with a person designated by the Member as a point of contact if we have concerns about financial exploitation. The Trusted Contact person can also act as a resource to assist us if we are unable to reach the Member after multiple attempts or if we have concerns about the Member's health or mental capacity.

Members are not required to provide a Trusted Contact. We do believe it is in the best interest of the Member, regardless of their age or current health status, to provide us with contact information for a person they trust who we may reach out to in a time of need.

Trusted Contacts do NOT have access to your account information nor can they perform transactions on your behalf. They are only used as a resource to help protect you in a time of concern.

If you are interested in adding a Trusted Contact or have any questions about this new service, please contact us at 906-774-6020 or stop by and speak with one of our staff.

Scott Dickman, CEO/President

EMPLOYEE TESTIMONIAL

My name is Lynn Marin. I have served Members at the Iron Mt-Kingsford Community Federal Credit Union since July of 1990...that's almost 34 years! Why do I love working at a Credit Union? I heard a phrase many years ago that has stuck with me...."We are not a bank. We are better." I truly believe in that statement and the CU Philosophy of "people helping people." Not only do we serve our membership, but we also actively help the entire community. I am really proud to be a part of that! We are truly a family here.

--- Lynn Marin, CU Accountant
